COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON SEAL

Sapientia Ipsa Libertas — “Wisdom Itself Is Liberty”

Ædes Mores Juraque Curat — “She Cares for Her Temples, Customs and Rights”

In 1783, the City of Charleston adopted its official seal. It features a seated woman holding a scepter pointing toward the mouth of the harbor. The city skyline and a sailing vessel making for port are in the background; the motto Ædes Mores Juraque Curat surrounds the image. Traditionally, the woman portrayed in the seal is described as a personification of Charleston itself, and evokes an image of a city that derives its livelihood from the sea and is prepared to defend itself.

The College of Charleston seal is an adaptation of the city seal and was approved by the Board of Trustees in 1843. The phrase Sapientia Ipsa Libertas and the image of a young man holding a diploma were added to the College seal; the original, 19th-century Main Building (today’s Randolph Hall) is in the background. The seated woman is presenting a laurel wreath to the young man (the City of Charleston incorporated the laurel wreath into its seal early in the 20th century).

CORE VALUES

As members of the College of Charleston community, we affirm, embrace and hold ourselves accountable to the following core values:

INTEGRITY: adherence to the highest ethical standards in all our professional obligations and personal responsibilities.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE: commitment to a dynamic intellectual community, high academic standards, strong academic programs and a high-quality faculty of engaged and engaging teacher-scholars.

LIBERAL ARTS EDUCATION: dedication to a liberal arts and sciences education that encourages intellectual curiosity and fosters each student’s ability to think creatively and analyze, synthesize, apply and communicate knowledge from many sources.

RESPECT FOR THE INDIVIDUAL STUDENT: devotion to the intellectual, ethical and social development of each student.

DIVERSITY: commitment to a globally-oriented and diverse academic community.

COMMUNITY: commitment to compassion, mutual trust, respect, civility, collegial shared governance, teamwork and the general welfare of the institution and the individual.

PUBLIC MISSION: commitment to our social responsibilities and to serving the educational needs of the state of South Carolina and our community.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER AND HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Thomas R. Martin

Thomas R. Martin joined the College of Charleston faculty in 2007 after a 30 career as a communication executive with FedEx and ITT Corporation. In 2016, he and his wife, Wanda, launched the Martin Scholars program. The program serves to develop a select group of seniors who are either majoring or minoring in Communication through a combination of exposure to effective communication leaders who serve as mentors and teachers, networking opportunities with communication alumni and Advisory Council members and experiential learning. In 2023, they founded the Martin Center for Mentorship in communication to develop and inspire leaders and mentors amongst communication students, including Martin Scholars.

Martin is a former strategic advisor to PublicRelay and senior counselor with PulsePoint Group. He also served as a Partner with Social Venture Partners in Charleston, a philanthropic partnership investing in non-profits. He is a past trustee of the Page Society, former trustee of the PRSA Foundation and was a member of the Board of Governors of the Josephson Institute of Ethics.

He earned his bachelor's degree from Vanderbilt University and was inducted into the PR News Hall of Fame in 2006. He received the Distinguished Service Award from the Page Society in 2011. He received the Milestones in Mentoring Legacy Award from the Betsy Plank Center at the University of Alabama in 2021. In 2023, Martin received the Order of the Silver Crescent from the governor of South Carolina in recognition of his many years of service to the College of Charleston. The Martins reside in Mount Pleasant and have two sons, a grandson and a granddaughter.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

Wanda C. Martin

Wanda C. Martin is a literacy tutor with Reading Partners at James Simons Montessori School. She and Tom are members of Social Venture Partners Charleston, a local philanthropic partnership affiliated with the Coastal Community Foundation. Following her early retirement and her family's move to Connecticut in 1996, she devoted herself to raising their two sons and serving in a number of volunteer roles. After moving to Mount Pleasant in 2007, inspired by Charleston's art community and the Lowcountry scenery, Wanda continued to follow her creative passion and has resumed her studies in landscape painting. Wanda now devotes much of her time to her two grandchildren who reside in Connecticut. She is also beloved among the more than 70 Martin Scholars alumni as she served as a guiding light to many during their time at the College.

Sylvia "Sibby" Craver Harvey '58

Sylvia Craver Harvey was highly involved on campus as an undergraduate at the College of Charleston, taking on numerous leadership roles. Her involvement with the College continued as an alumna. She is a Trustee Emerita, former member of the Foundation Board and a Past President of the Alumni Association. For her untiring dedication to the College, Harvey received the Alumni Award of Honor in 2015. Early in her career, she taught throughout the United States. The Harvey family's roots run deep at the College of Charleston. In October 2024, Sibby was celebrated at the College of Charleston's Loyal Donor Celebration for achieving the monumental record of 41 years of consecutive giving. She provides loyal assistance to everything from the Alumni Association and women's basketball to fraternity and sorority life and Deans Funds.

CANDIDATES FOR BACHELOR'S DEGREES

GRADUATION WITH HONORS

Students who earn a grade point average (GPA) of 3.900 to 4.000 will graduate Summa Cum Laude. Students who earn a GPA of 3.750 to 3.899 will graduate Magna Cum Laude. Students who earn a GPA of 3.500 to 3.749 will graduate Cum Laude. To be eligible for graduation with honors, at least 62 hours of the coursework to be applied to the degree must have been performed at the College of Charleston. These honor graduates are wearing a maroon ribbon and medallion. Members of the honor society Phi Kappa Phi can be recognized by the blue ribbon and medallion each is wearing. Members of the Golden Key International Honor Society can be recognized by the blue and gold cord each is wearing. Members of the honor society Phi Eta Sigma can be recognized by the black and gold cord or medallion each is wearing. Other honor societies may be represented with specific regalia as officially approved by the College. Please note that student honors in the printed program are presumptive, reflecting academic achievement through August 2024. Official honors will be awarded once final grades have been computed, and they will be recognized on the diploma and transcript.

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater.

Hail to thy time-honored name.

Proud traditions hover 'round thee;

May we never bring thee shame.

Loyal sons and daughters love thee,

Strive to conquer and prevail.

We will sing thy praises ever –

College of Charleston, hail, all hail.

We will sing thy praises ever –
