COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON SEAL

Sapientia Ipsa Libertas — “Wisdom Itself Is Liberty”
Ædes Mores Juraque Curat — “She Cares for Her Temples, Customs and Rights”

In 1783, the City of Charleston adopted its official seal. It features a seated woman holding a scepter pointing toward the mouth of the harbor. The city skyline and a sailing vessel making for port are in the background; the motto Ædes Mores Juraque Curat surrounds the image. Traditionally, the woman portrayed in the seal is described as a personification of Charleston itself, and evokes an image of a city that derives its livelihood from the sea and is prepared to defend itself.

The College of Charleston seal is an adaptation of the city seal and was approved by the Board of Trustees in 1843. The phrase Sapientia Ipsa Libertas and the image of a young man holding a diploma were added to the College seal; the original, 19th-century Main Building (today's Randolph Hall) is in the background. The seated woman is presenting a laurel wreath to the young man (the City of Charleston incorporated the laurel wreath into its seal early in the 20th century).

SATURDAY MORNING

Michael and Amy Bennett

Michael and Amy Bennett are deeply rooted members of the Charleston community, known for their commitment to both business leadership and meaningful philanthropy. Michael R. Bennett, a Charleston native, is the founder and owner of Bennett Hospitality, one of the largest locally owned development companies in Charleston, South Carolina. Born into a family with deep roots in the city, Bennett's entrepreneurial journey began in his youth. As a teenager, he started a bicycle and moped rental business on Market Street, which paved the way for his future ventures in real estate and hospitality. Throughout his career, Bennett has been committed to preserving and enhancing the cultural fabric of Charleston. His developments often pay homage to the city's history, incorporating local art, reclaimed materials, and design elements that reflect Charleston's unique character. Beyond his business endeavors, Bennett's work has significantly contributed to the revitalization and economic growth of the region, solidifying his reputation as a visionary leader in the hospitality industry.

Amy Bennett is an avid outdoorswoman and has won many fly-fishing awards. Her passion for the water and the outdoors embodies the spirit of the Lowcountry. She is deeply committed to encouraging others—especially young people—to connect with and appreciate the natural world. She graduated from the College of Charleston in 1982.

Together, Michael and Amy founded BKind, a nonprofit created in honor of their son, Brennan. Their work reflects a shared belief in investing in future generations and preserving the natural beauty that defines the region.

COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON FOUNDATION

The College of Charleston Foundation would like to thank the following parents of graduating seniors who have provided support to all areas of the College at the 1770 Society level this academic year. Taking its name from the year that the College of Charleston was founded, the 1770 Society recognizes donors who contribute $1,000 or more annually.

A heartfelt thank you for the leadership and support provided to the College.

The College of Charleston Foundation would like to honor the following parents of graduating seniors who have consistently made generous gifts to the College of Charleston and are celebrated as part of our Live Oak Society. The Live Oak Society recognizes the College of Charleston's most loyal and dedicated donors — those who have made philanthropic gifts to any area of the College for two consecutive years or more. Named after the majestic live oak trees that have long defined the College's historic campus, the society symbolizes strength, continuity, and deep-rooted commitment to the institution's mission.

The College owes them a debt of gratitude for their loyal support.
