COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON SEAL

Sapientia Ipsa Libertas — “Wisdom Itself Is Liberty”
Ædes Mores Juraque Curat — “She Cares for Her Temples, Customs and Rights”

In 1783, the City of Charleston adopted its official seal. It features a seated woman holding a scepter pointing toward the mouth of the harbor. The city skyline and a sailing vessel making for port are in the background; the motto Ædes Mores Juraque Curat surrounds the image. Traditionally, the woman portrayed in the seal is described as a personification of Charleston itself, and evokes an image of a city that derives its livelihood from the sea and is prepared to defend itself.

The College of Charleston seal is an adaptation of the city seal and was approved by the Board of Trustees in 1843. The phrase Sapientia Ipsa Libertas and the image of a young man holding a diploma were added to the College seal; the original, 19th-century Main Building (today’s Randolph Hall) is in the background. The seated woman is presenting a laurel wreath to the young man (the City of Charleston incorporated the laurel wreath into its seal early in the 20th century).

CORE VALUES

As members of the College of Charleston community, we affirm, embrace and hold ourselves accountable to the following core values:

INTEGRITY: We take accountability for our actions and adhere to the highest ethical standards in all our professional obligations and personal responsibilities. We demonstrate respect for self, others and place.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE: We are committed to a dynamic intellectual community, high academic standards, strong academic programs, exceptional teacher-scholars, engaged students and lifelong learners.

LIBERAL ARTS EDUCATION: We encourage intellectual curiosity and foster each student’s ability to think creatively and analyze, synthesize, apply and communicate knowledge from many sources.

DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION: We create and nurture a diverse and inclusive community demonstrated through our thoughts, words and actions. We value and respect the unique perspectives, backgrounds and experiences every individual has to offer.

STUDENT CENTEREDNESS: We are devoted to nurturing thriving scholar-citizens through the intellectual, ethical and social development of each individual student.

INNOVATION: We act with an entrepreneurial spirit to imagine and implement creative, bold and sustainable solutions in our pursuit of excellence and continuous improvement.

PUBLIC MISSION: We demonstrate social responsibility in meeting the educational and professional needs of our community, our state, our nation and the world.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS

FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Julia L. Eichelberger

Julia L. Eichelberger came to the College in 1992 after earning a Ph.D. from UNC-Chapel Hill and a B.A. from Davidson College. Her American literature courses here have explored African American writers, American fiction and poetry, Jewish American literature and Charleston writers. She also teaches courses in first-year writing, writing in the English major and within the Southern Studies Program, an interdisciplinary minor that she directs. Currently the Marybelle Higgins Howe Professor of Southern Literature, she has published numerous works on Mississippi writer Eudora Welty and other Southern authors.

She is an affiliate faculty member in the African American Studies Program and the Women's and Gender Studies Program, and a member of the executive board for the College's Center for the Study of Slavery in Charleston. She has been active in the College's shared governance, chairing Faculty Senate committees and working to identify best practices for adjunct faculty colleagues as a Faculty Administrative Fellow.

The South Carolina chapter of the American Academy of University Professors named Eichelberger an AAUP Champion Professor in 2019 for her advocacy for adjunct faculty. She is co-chair of the College's Committee on Commemoration and Landscapes and has authored numerous essays for its website, Discovering Our Past. Her family includes three College of Charleston alumni: Sara Hutchinson '12, Ben Hutchinson '19 and Ben's fiancée Julie Holl '11.

SATURDAY MORNING

Gioconda Quesada

Gioconda Quesada, a native of Costa Rica, is a member of academia and leadership at the College of Charleston. Since her arrival in 2003, she has been an integral part of the Department of Supply Chain and Information Management, imparting knowledge in a variety of courses including Business Statistics, Operations Management and Green Supply Chain Management. Her journey at the College has seen her assume several pivotal roles, such as the associate director of the Global Business Resource Center, faculty coordinator of general education and chair of the supply chain and information management department. In her current capacity as the Assistant Provost for Assessment, Quesada's dedication to educational quality and her alignment with the College's mission are evident.

Her research encompasses a broad spectrum, from supply chain management and sustainability to international business and lean manufacturing. Her work not only contributes to academic discourse but also profoundly influences her students, equipping them with insights into the complexities of the modern academic and business landscapes.

Her academic credentials include a degree in Industrial Engineering from the Costa Rica Institute of Technology, a Masters in Manufacturing Management and a Ph.D. in Manufacturing Management and Engineering from the University of Toledo.

Quesada has co-directed study abroad programs, enriching the lives of over 100 students with experiences in Costa Rica, Greece and the Netherlands. Her commitment to global education underscores her belief in its significance in shaping well-rounded, culturally aware individuals.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Elizabeth G. Jurisich

Elizabeth G. Jurisich is a New Orleans native who, along with her spouse Ben Cox and daughter Gwendolyn, relocated to the Charleston area in 1999. After earning her Ph.D. in Mathematics from Rutgers University, she was awarded the prestigious L.E. Dickson Postdoctoral Assistant Professorship at the University of Chicago. She also served as a visiting assistant professor at the University of California, Santa Cruz before joining the faculty at the College.

In addition to her academic roles, she has worked as a cryptanalysis consultant for the Center for Communications Research. She is the author of over twenty papers in representation theory and conformal field theory and has co-organized and organized more than ten conferences and workshops in her research area, including conferences at the College. As an established researcher in mathematics she has served as group leader of the Women in Noncommutative Algebra and Representation Theory Workshop at the Banff International Research Station in Canada, mentoring young researchers.

A strong proponent of liberal arts education, her favorite courses to teach include Calculus for Business and Social Sciences, Discrete Mathematics and general education math courses where the audience includes many different majors and points of view. As a former English major with a BA from Wellesley College interacting with these students is often the highlight of her semester.

Jurisich's accomplishments extend to institutional service and leadership. She has served as the speaker of the faculty senate at the College and as a grant reviewer for the National Science Foundation and the American Association of University Women.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

FRIDAY AFTERNOON

R. Keith Summey

R. Keith Summey's career in public service began with his role on the Charleston County Election Commission in 1978, where he was noted for his impartial leadership. His subsequent political career included tenures on the North Charleston City Council and Charleston County Council. In 1994, he was elected to serve as the Mayor for the City of North Charleston. He has been reelected seven times, a testament to his enduring leadership and vision for the city. Under his guidance, North Charleston has undergone transformative improvements in municipal services and civic pride, with a clear focus on enhancing the quality of life for its residents.

A native of Cottageville, South Carolina, Mr. Summey's deep roots in the community have shaped his approach to governance and community engagement. He is a proud alumnus of Chicora High School and Charleston Southern University (formerly Baptist College). His commitment to public service was honored by Charleston Southern University with an Honorary Doctorate of Public Service. Mr. Summey and his wife, Deborah, have two adult children and four grandchildren.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON

The Honorable G. Murrell Smith Jr.

G. Murrell Smith, Jr. is an attorney and current Speaker of the South Carolina House of Representatives. Smith is a native of Florence, South Carolina and grew up in Sumter, where he graduated from Wilson Hall in 1986. He attended Wofford College and earned a Bachelor of Arts in History and Government. After earning his Juris Doctor from the University of South Carolina School of Law in 1993, Smith began practicing law in his hometown while simultaneously serving as a part-time public defender from 1994-1998. Since 2019, he has been a partner at Smith Robinson where he has a presence representing clients in virtually every county in the state.

In 2000, Smith was elected to represent District 67 in the South Carolina House of Representatives. He began his political career as a member of the House Judiciary Committee and was later elected as Chairman of the South Carolina House Ways and Means Committee. In 2022, Smith was elected to be the 61 Speaker of the South Carolina House of Representatives.

Smith and his wife, Macaulay live in Sumter and have two children, Mary Brown "Bee" and George Murrell III.

L. Cherry Daniel

L. Cherry Daniel is Chief Executive Director of the South Carolina Virtual School. Previously she worked at the South Carolina Department of Education as the State Director for Adult and Community Education, implementing the GED online prep program and virtual high school diploma courses. She also served on the initial SC Virtual School task force and was appointed by then Governor Mark Sanford to serve on the South Carolina Workforce Investment board.

She holds a B.S. in Secondary Education from the College of Charleston; M.Ed., in School Administration; Education Specialist degree from the Citadel and a doctorate in Education Leadership from South Carolina State University. She previously served as an adjunct professor at the College of Charleston. She previously served as an adjunct professor at the College of Charleston and as a member of both the College of Charleston Board of Trustees and the Foundation Board. As a Trustee Emeritus member of the Board of Trustees, she serves on the Education, Health and Human Performance Development Council.

AWARD RECIPIENTS

FACULTY AWARDS OF DISTINCTION

Each academic year, faculty members are presented awards for distinguished performance in seven areas. Candidates are nominated by colleagues, and recipients are chosen by a committee comprised of prior awardees or other designees. The Distinguished Teaching Award and Distinguished Adjunct Faculty Teaching Award honor those who typify high standards and commitment to teaching excellence. The Distinguished Research Award honors a faculty member for significant research. The Distinguished Service Award recognizes the outstanding contributions of a colleague who, beyond his/her required duties, has served the College community in an outstanding and distinguished manner. The Distinguished Advising Award honors individuals who have demonstrated a dedication to students in the area of academic advising. The William V. Moore Distinguished Teacher-Scholar Award recognizes a faculty member whose exemplary scholarship and teaching have together enriched the intellectual lives of our students. The Distinguished Undergraduate Mentor Award honors individuals who have demonstrated an outstanding commitment to providing exceptionally high-quality mentoring to undergraduate students in individual research or creative projects.

COLLEGE of CHARLESTON

FOUNDATION

The College of Charleston Foundation would like to thank the following parents of graduating seniors who have provided support to all areas of the College at the 1770 Society level this academic year. Taking its name from the year that the College of Charleston was founded, the 1770 Society recognizes donors who contribute $1,000 or more annually. A heartfelt thank you for the leadership and support provided to the College.

The College of Charleston Foundation would like to honor the following parents of graduating seniors who have made generous gifts to the College of Charleston every year for the past four years. Their commitment to make the College of Charleston a philanthropic priority year after year transforms the College's aspirations into actions. The College owes them a debt of gratitude for their loyal support.
