The laws governing FSA programs are based on the premise that the family is the first source of the student's support, and the law provides several criteria that decide if the student is considered independent of her parents for aid eligibility. Note that a student reaching the age of 18 or 21 or living apart from her parents does not affect her dependency status. If you answered these questions in error on your FAFSA, you will need to correct your FAFSA and include parent income information. Also email financialaid@cofc.edu once your FAFSA has been corrected.

Financial Assistance and Veterans Affairs is verifying students that are independent for reasons listed below. Please provide the following documents to establish your independent student status as indicated on your 2024-2025 FAFSA.

Check the box(s) that applies to your Independent Student Status:

NOTE: Members of the National Guard or Reserves are only considered veterans if they are called up to active federal duty by presidential order for a purpose other than training.
- Veteran- Provide a copy of your DD-215 indicating you were released under a condition other than "dishonorable." Students who attended a U.S. service academy or preparatory school for at least one day and were released under conditions other than "dishonorable" count as veterans for Title IV purposes.
- Dependents other than spouse- Provide documentation that you provide more than 50% support (support includes: income earned from work, child support, government programs, etc.) for the child or dependent you included in your household on the FAFSA.
- Orphan, foster child, or ward of the court –
- Orphan- If you had no living parent (biological or adoptive) at any time since you turned age 13, even if you are adopted, please provide a copy of death certificates of your biological parents.
- Foster Child- If you were in foster care at any time since you turned age 13, even if you are no longer in foster care as of today, please provide our office with documentation of your status from Department of Social Services/Human Services indicating dates you were in foster care.
- Ward of the court- If you were a dependent or ward of the court at any time since you turned age 13, even if you are no longer a dependent or ward of the court as of today, please submit a complete copy of the court order making you a dependent or ward of the court.
- Emancipated Minor is a child who has been granted the status of adulthood by a court order or other formal arrangement. You must provide a copy of the court order that granted you this status. The court must be in your state of legal residence at the time the court's decision was issued. You must submit a copy of the court order that granted you this status before you reached the age of being considered as an adult in the eyes of the law in your state
- Legal guardianship- provide a copy of a court's decision that you were in legal guardianship immediately before you reached the age of being an adult in your state. The court must be in your state of legal residence at the time the court's decision was issued. The definition of legal guardianship does not include your parents, even if they were appointed by a court to be your guardians. You are also not considered a legal guardian of yourself or if your parents go to court and ask to have a guardian appointed. The legal guardianship should have been determined by the court and not just through the court.
