Community Planning, Policy and Design MA*
2019-2020 Student Learning Outcomes

Outcome		Assessment Methods
1	Program graduates will be able to identify, classify and define specific architectural and urban design ideas and forms in Charleston, the Low Country, the nation, and the globe.	Portfolios Project evaluations
2	Graduates will recognize planning policy issues and real estate challenges that are affected by social, economic, environmental, ethical, scientific and political challenges in the 21st Century.	Exams Project evaluations
3	Students will develop comprehensive design skills that can be applied to local, regional, national and international urban design issues and challenges.	Studio-based projects
4	Students will be able to analyze urban design challenges in a diverse array of national and international contexts and infer appropriate solutions.	Research-based projects
5	Program graduates will be able to integrate solutions into the urban fabric of cities and effectively communicate Community Planning, Policy, and Design ideas, forms and plans to varied professional and lay audiences utilizing practiced technologies and methodologies in digital media.	Oral presentations
6	Grounded in humanist Community Planning, Policy and Design ideals, students will critically assess urban design challenges and justify solutions to clients, coworkers, politicians and developers that actively conceptualize, apply, analyze, synthesize, and evaluate urban design theory, concepts and methods in real world scenarios.	Final thesis studio project

* Preliminary outcomes